RE: Adrienne Papp

To Whom It May Concern:

Adrienne Papp was a student in my Advertising Principle and Policies (X163) course at the University of California, Los Angeles.

She consistently displayed a thorough understanding of the course materials and was extremely articulate in class discussions. Her quick grasp of the subject reflects her determination to excel in any area of study and vocation.

Adrienne's academic performance rated her among the top in the class and her drive, enthusiasm and commitment was evident in all areas.

I endorse her efforts in the pursuit of her professional goals with any employer. Please feel free to contact me should you have further questions or comments at (562) 432-5300 or cameron@piercomm.com.
